This screenshot shows a web page with a light gray background. A prominent feature is a large vertical bar on the left side, divided into three distinct color sections: red at the top, green in the middle, and blue at the bottom. The page contains text and a map of the United States, similar to the first screenshot. The layout is clean and modern, with a clear focus on the colored bar.
